

SPANISH PATHWAY, A.A.

School of Humanities

The Associate of Arts degree in Spanish introduces students to intermediate level reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills. Students are introduced to the global influences of the Spanish language and the culture of Spanish-speaking nations. This degree program prepares students to succeed in bachelor's programs in Spanish, World Languages, World Language Education, International Business, and Translation/ Interpretation. This program can be completed online.

To qualify for graduation, students must meet all graduation requirements (<http://catalog.highlands.edu/academic-information/graduation-requirements/>).
